Scene Study Workshops

(2hrs/week) Thursdays 6.30 - 8.30pm

Fee: €198.50/term

This Scene Study Class is designed for actors at both beginner and advanced levels. Each week, students are encouraged to bring in scenes and monologues from film, stage, and TV, spanning from contemporary to classic works. In class, they will receive feedback on their performances and be guided through warm-ups and fundamental skills to refine their craft.

The approach to each scene will be tailored to the specific text and needs of the actors, with personalized feedback aimed at deepening their connection to the material. The goal is to help actors build rich, authentic characters rooted in truth.

Throughout the course, actors will expand their skill set through voice and movement work, script analysis, and constructive feedback. These sessions will help actors sharpen their focus, increase self-awareness, and gain tools to fully embody their characters' words.

To ensure personalized attention, class size is limited to 16 participants, allowing each actor ample time to present their work, receive feedback, and apply it in future sessions as well as in their work on stage and screen.

The Workshop runs for 10 weeks, starting November 7th, and continuing through to till January 23rd, 2025.

Acting for Screen

(2hrs/week) Schedule to be announced shortly

Fee: €198.50/term

In our dynamic digital age, mastering screen-based performance and communication is crucial for drama students. Our syllabus, based on Trinity College London's Acting for Screen syllabus, is carefully crafted to empower today's learners to become the standout performers of tomorrow. Acting for Screen builds relevant skills that sit at the heart of the rapidly growing television and film sectors through exam tasks that reflect industry-aligned practices, critical for success in auditions, showreels and self-taping.

Acting for Screen Examinations offer complete preparation for the practical demands of professional screen acting by elevating on-screen technical and performance impact, as well as boosting industry-relevant understanding and expertise. Available for solo candidates at three levels: Screen 1, Screen 2, Screen 3.
